

A crimson-colored wine made from Gamay grapes, descendants of Pinot Noir, that's bright with cherry, strawberry and raspberry flavors and hints of cinnamon and other spices. From Château de Pizay, one of the oldest, most esteemed estates in France's Beaujolais region, it boasts attractive acidity and can handle a chill.

Pair with: Turkey, Ham, Pork, Veal, Cornish Hens, Quail, Grilled Salmon, Munster and Fontina Cheeses
Perfect for Thanksgiving
