92 Points – International Wine Report

The 2016 Plan de Dieu from Château Du Trignon opens to a beautiful bouquet with aromas of black and blue fruits, cracked black pepper, wild herbs, tar, and violets all emerging from the glass. It is full-bodied with lots of savory flavors backed by delicious pure dark fruits and some dark chocolate on the supple finish. This is an easy drinking red that is showing well today and should continue to flourish over the next five years. – M.D.

The wine estate of Chateau du Trignon was acquired in 1895 by Joseph Roux and run by his descendants until 2007, when Pascal Roux, a passionate winemaker, who had kept the quality of the wine at the highest levels, sold the vineyard to another esteemed Rhone Valley winemaker, Jerome Quiot, who also owns and runs Domaine du Vieux Lazaret in Chateaneuf du Pape and Domaine Houchart in Provence. The wine is made from 150 acres of vines in six villages: Gigondas, Vacqueyras, Rasteau, Sablet, Plan de Dieu and Beumes de Venise.
