Vinification: 100% hand harvested selection of the grape, cold maceration. Pumping over twice a day. Aging during one year with 10% in barrels.

Food Pairing: Suits very well with warm red fruit marmalade, a braised lamb and aubergine gratins.

90 Points James Suckling & International Wine Cellar

This is showing some age with a savory array of earth-crusted dried berries and a soft, supple and mellow palate that fills the finish with blue fruit nicely. Drink or hold. — J.S.

The wine estate of Chateau du Trignon was acquired in 1895 by Joseph Roux and run by his descendants until 2007, when Pascal Roux, a passionate winemaker, who had kept the quality of the wine at the highest levels, sold the vineyard to another esteemed Rhone Valley winemaker, Jerome Quiot, who also owns and runs Domaine du Vieux Lazaret in Chateauneuf du Pape and Domaine Houchart in Provence. The wine is made from 150 acres of vines in five villages: Gigondas, Vacqueyras, Rasteau, Sablet and Beaumes de Venise. The name comes from the river that runs between Gigondas and Sablet where the estate is located
