Château Lagrèzette Malbec

2015

Powerful and rich, this flagship wine of the estate is 100% Malbec produced from 30-year-old vines. From the historic Cahors ("Ka-ore") appellation of France, known as the birthplace of Malbec, this ruby-red wine offers opulent red-fruit flavors and beautifully integrated oak layered with vanilla and licorice.

Château Lagrèzette is the oldest winemaking property in Cahors, with harvest records dating to 1503. Proprietor Alain-Dominique Perrin, former CEO of Cartier, has spent 40-plus years working with renowned oenologist Michel Rolland elevating French Malbec to world-class quality. No estate is more synonymous with high-end French Malbec than Château Lagrèzette.
