This distinguished Southern Rhône estate has hosted five generations of winemakers over the last 125 years. Today, Florence Quiot and her brother Jean-Baptiste are at the helm and continue the tradition of crafting superior Côtes du Rhône from a patchwork of vineyards that span six appellations of the Southern Rhône. The gravity flow winery is located along the Trignon River dividing Sablet and Gigondas. Access to parcels of the best vineyards from the valley floor to the highest altitudes of the appellation give rise to wines of superb character and complexity. A full-bodied, richly textured, utterly captivating Viognier.

Vinification: Harvested very early in the morning. Pneumatic pressing, settling and fermentation in thermo-regulated stainless steel vats (15-17°C). No malolactic fermentation.

Tasting Notes: Lovely, full-bodied wine with rich textures and aromas of peach, apricot and floral notes.. Nutty flavors glide along with a hint of fennel adding freshness and balance to the finish.

Food Pairing: Delicious with lobster, white flakey fish in butter sauce or roasted pork with fresh rosemary.

"Fresh, Juicy with notes of Dried Apples, Dried Pears... Spices... Vivid and Playful." - 90 Points, James Suckling
